in Two Courts.

er's will.

James Clendenin said in his application that his brother has appropriated the Eckert home, 38 West 26th st., for four years, and refused to pay rent or account for the rents he has collected from the other Eckert property, including the building at 549 Eigh as

AND LOVE VANISHED

Nolan, Sued for Divorce, Asserts Furniture Also Went

When Wealth Fell to Wife.

It was not love and poverty, but love and wealth, that clashed in the

Mrs. Nolan and the children, the eldest

"When I returned." he added, "I had no home. My wife took every stick of furniture with her. I traced her and the children to Jersey City. Now she is living in one of the finest houses there, has plenty of money and doesn't love me any more."

the shirt

$200

EARL & WILSON.

RED-MAN COLLARS

tat. To-day.

cat Orch.

cata $1 & $1.50 AROUND Bernard Granvi

BRADYS PLAY HOUSE

44th ST. Theatre, W. of B's

MY LADY'S DRESS

Mats. To-day, Wed. FAVERSHAM

THE LILAC DOMINO

48th St. THEATRE DEAF BOWN EN SI

THE OVLY GIRL

twenty-three and the youngest ten. occupy fashionable quarters in the Bergen Heights section.

Mrs. Nolan, asked Vice-Chancellor case in The Bronx, because it was be complaint and substitute constructive desertion. Decision was reserved.

Love and wealth were strikingly contrasted in court when Nolan appeared in an ill-fitting suit that showed service, while the wife wore an expensive tailor-made suit and had diamonds sparkling at her throat and on the finger where her wedding ring was formerly worn.

As a charge of absolute desertion of large construction improver ould not stand, Charles Simpson, for "Then it was decided to get trs. Nolan, asked Vice-Chancellor case in The Bronx, because it

HINT OF SPITE WAR OVER DEAD AT QUIZ

Haste in Taking Bodies to Morgue Probed in Coroners' Inquiry.

DR. LEHANE ANSWERS UNDERTAKER ACCUSER

Entry in Coroner's Day Book and Disposition of Complaint Taken Up.

The summary ordering of a body to an undertaker, who had a green against him.

Charles J. Coyle is the undertaker named by Dr. Lehane as the writer of the complaint. It related to the disposition of the body of Charles L. Duval, a laborer, who died June 6, 1912, at his home, 224 East 121st st. "He (Dr. Lehane)," wrote the undertaker, "got excited when the widow could not answer him quick enough, and ordered the remains to the morgue. Before ordering the remains to the morgue he asked her who the undertaker was, and she informed him that it was Mr. — He said, "What did you get him for" " hat it was Mr. He said, What hat it was Mr. He said, What hat it was Mr. He said, What hat you get him for."

A sergeant and five patrolmen, the undertaker continues, were summoned from the East 126th st. police station. They hustled every one out of the rooms, in spite of the pleading of the widow. From the Harlem morgue, he widow. From the Harlem morgue, he had been the body was not sent to missioner Wallstein told him, Dr. Lehane was in ignorance of the fact that infantile convulsions were specifically mentioned as insufficient cause of death upon the reverse of death certificates.

Commissioner Wallstein wanted to know how Dr. Lehane reached the conclusion that Lena Garfield's death in light his larger of his provided from his provided for superintendent of Employment and told Dr. Lehane any particulars and that he spent not more than one minute examining the body. Dr. Lehane acknowledged that the symptoms and that he spent not more than one minute examining the body. Dr. Lehane acknowledged that the symptoms have based his report simply upon his opinion and the statement of a relative that the woman's trouble had been with the "herz."

The inquiry will be continued Monday.

day.

Justice Newburger yeaterday reserved decision in the matter of directing Geroner Herman Hellenstein to answer the questions put to him by Commissioner Wallatein. Frank Moss, counsel for the Coroner, besides raising the question of jurisdiction, complained that the rapid fire of questions was directed in English, whick tended to confuse his client.

Mrs. Isabel H. Birmingham, wife of Stepling Rirmingham, was disinherited.

THE DELLA ROBBIA ROOM

The VANDERBILT HOTEL GRETA TORPADIE Swedish Coloratura Soprano DELLA ROBBIA ORCHESTRA JOSEPH FEJER, Conductor

SEVEN TO NINE O'CLOCK TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS

HOTEL LANGDON

DANCING INSTRUCTION. Interpretive Dancing

OUIS H. CHALIF

7 WEST 42D STREET.

WARE JERSEY LOBSTERS BRUERE TELLS WAY One of the Fighting Kind Cost Hotelkeeper a Big Bill.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune )
Metuchen, N. J., Nov. 20.—As the re-Metuchen, N. J., Nov. 20.—As the result of an encounter with a lobster on June 2, 1913, in which the lobster drew first blood, Tony Mazze, of Madison Township, N. J., to-day in the Middlesex County Court, before Judge Peter F. Daly, won an award of $410, plus court expenses, physician's fees and his hospital bill.

Tony worked at the Hotel Klein, New is hospital bill.

Tony worked at the Hotel Klein, New trunswick, and under orders from eter Klein went into the kitchen to ip the lobsters in boiling water. One of the crustaceans nipped him on the hotex finger. Blood poisoning set in, and for five weeks he was in a hospital.

The case was brought under the New Jersey workmen's compensation act.

TESTIMONY BY LOFT

Campaign Letter Case Before

REVELATIONS KILL CITY EXAMINATION

Examiners' Woman Friend by Curious Aid Wins as Fingerprint Expert.

widow. From the Harlem morgus, continues, the body was not sent to continues, the body was not sent to 26th st. until too late for Dr. Albert T. Weston to perform an autopsy on that day. The following day the unthat day. The following day the unthat the state of the body was such that a closed coffin would be necestary. The cause of death was finally determined without an autopsy.

A scrutiny of the daybook in the Coroners' office showed that the words Coroners' office showed that the words fingerprint experts, one of the two earniners, and had never worked as fingerprint expert, but had studied by the continues of the coroners' office showed that the words fingerprint expert, but had studied by the continues of the coroners' office showed that the words fingerprint expert, but had studied by the coroners' office showed that the words fingerprint expert, but had studied by the coroners' office showed that the words fingerprint experts, but had studied the recent examination of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated. It was shown by the state commit of the elliptic list already promulgated.

tion, being a high school graduate and a trained nurse. It was shown, however, that to another woman candidate, who had worked in the courts in Brooknatching. Whoever wrote that letter and I suspect it was Charles J. loyle—must have had a grievance of B. A., and LL. B., had been given a grieval me. If that letter was called much lower rating.

ith the "herz."
The inquiry will be continued Mon- DAUGHTER LEFT

tions was directed in English, whick tended to confuse his client.

To Dedicate New Building.

The new building of the Young Women's Hebrew Association, 31 West 110th st., will be dedicated to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Israel Unterberg, president, will preside, and addresses will be made by Felix M. Warburg, president of the Young Men's Hebrew Association; Miss Augusta Wolf, Judge Association; Miss Augusta Wolf, Judge Associations, and Mrs. A. N. Cohen. Mrs. Warburg is chairman of the arrangements committee, and Samuel I. Hyman heads the reception committee.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT THE CONCERT THE CONTROL OF THE CONT

Tetanus Did Not Kill Boy.

Meningitis, and not tetanus, follows to daughters were entitled to the death of six-year-old Chester Waters, of the stock.

The litigation was a proceeding brought by her daughter to have her removed as trustee of the estate of the stock owing to her reduced circumstances.

Mrs. Harris left her entire estate, which consisted of $80.000 lividends on the stock, to her daughter Miss Antoinette S. Harris, but the principal will be divided by the two daughters. Mrs. Harris also refers to a lack of affection which her granddaughter, and mother failed me in my need, I do not feet that she cares for my love. But being mindful of the fact that she is under the influence of her father and mother, I will give my granddaughter a dimmond and pearl ring, provided she exhibits to me acts of kindness and of love between now and my decease."

Tetanus Did Not Kill Boy.

Meningitis, and not tetanus, follow.

Menus daughter Waters.

All told, 106 cattle were affected in the karp to provide and the exterminated today.

In a herd on Old South Road, near Celar Lane. Queens, and on a farm on the stock to the child it was given out he had been vaccinated of the child it was given out he had been vaccinated of the child it was given out he had been vaccinated of the child it was given out he had been vaccinated of the child it was given out he had been vaccin

TO OUST HIMSELF

Woods Wants Finger-Print of Every One and More Cash for Police.

DOWLING CENSURES VOCATIONAL PLANS

Tammany Snarls at Mitchel and Aldermanic Finance Committee Hears All.

Henry Bruere surprised the members The summary ordering of a body to the morgue for an autopsy which was never performed; an entry in the Coroner's daybook apparently altered to take the responsibility from Dr. Timethy D. Lehane, Coroner's physician, and the final mysterious disposition of a complaint made against Dr. Lehane, were subjects of inquiry yesterday and submitted his testimony in regard to requests for campaign contributions received by employes of the office of Thomas E. Rush. Surveyor of the Port.

John A. Cross, a deputy surveyor, was questioned about the receipt of requests for campaign contributions. The power to abolish the office of his annual salary in that position. But in the next breath he told them that the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, when he desirable to abolish the office of City Chamberlain. They saw visions of getting credit for cutting out of the tomorphic the desirable to abolish the office of City Chamberlain. They saw visions of getting credit for cutting out of the budget the $12,000 which is the amount of his annual salary in that position. But in the next breath he told them that the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, when he desirable to abolish the office of City Chamberlain. They saw visions of getting credit for cutting out of the timony in regard to requests for campaign contributions. But in the next breath he told them that the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, when he frankly stated he believed it would be desirable to abolish the office of City Chamberlain. They saw visions of getting credit for cutting out of the timony in regard to requests for campaign contributions. But in the next breath he told them that the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, when he frankly stated he believed it would be desirable to abolish the office of City Chamberlain. They saw visions of getting credit for cutting out of the timony in regard to requests for campaign contributions. But in the next breath he told them that the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, when he frankly stated he believed it So far as I am concerned personally, may be done at any time."

Police Commissioner Woods told the Finance Committee that the $17,364.594 "Bombphobia" Manifested allowed for his department was too

The only reply was a laugh and a repetition of the statement that he thought the Board of Estimate had not allowed enough money for his department.

Alderman Dowling, leader of the Tammany minority, objected to the Alderman Dowling, leader of the Tammany minority, objected to the employment of Dean Schneider of the University of Cincinnati and Professor William Wirt, of Gary, Ind., to introduce here a system of vocational training. They are to get $10,000 a year for a part of their time. When the purpose of their engagement was explained to Alderman Dowling he grunted and said: said: "Let them stay at home and take

FREE MARKET RULING

Trace

The many phose of their meth
I play no favorites with under ers, and I won't stand for body who had worked in the courts in Brook ching. Whoever wrote that letter | I made it to one or two explanation. I don't remember explanation is the last to find eat, for my love infermed by what he regarded as an un lyst prison sentence against me. If the surface is the surface as an expert and upst prison sentence against me. If was show he lid three degrees, these of graduate and upst prison sentence against me. It was show he was too great to believe that he could be the middle of walking the same of the light of walking the cancelling of the committee was upheld and strength mers."

explanation. I don't remember

explanation. I don't remember

explanation is the cause of the Board of Coro covering the period in which the laint was made are not to be seminated unread unread unread the prison sentence against me. It was to great to believe that he could not be late to find eat, for my love was to great to believe that he collider to find the con for him."

FREE MARKET RULING

Control of City Over Stands

Upheld by Judge.

The control of the city over the free

market sextablished of Roycush Pres
market sextablished of Roycush Pres
market was under the desire that to another was not against me. It was to get an the light of the was to og for him.

The substitutions in the current of the desire that was to og for him.

Takes Hotel for 1 Vears.

The Metropole, in front of which the desire that covers, an unterly

the desire that covers, an unterly

the desire that covers, an unte In opposing the granting of a permanent injunction the Borough President pointed out that unless he was upheld by the court the plan to reduce the cost of living in this city would be seriously affected, and might fail altogether.

Justice Davis vacated the temporary injunction.

Iish Walling, Matilda Robbins, Max Eastman, Arturo Giovanitti, Joseph J. Ettor and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn. They term it a "fair play" meeting. A young woman picked up a brass object at Seventh av. and 127th st. yesteriay, and when some one said "Romb!" a crowd which had collected soon scattered. It proved to be a clock pendulum.

CLAIMS SING SING

Calls for Workers.

Calls for Workers.

Walter L. Sears, superintendent of the Public Employment Bureau, opened on Thursday by the city at Lafayette and Leonard sts., said last night that employers were beginning to avail the Union Bank, of Brooklyn, while at Sing Sing, adjourned yesterday untin Wednesday. District Attorney Cropsey will be in Albany the first of next week when the Willett-Cassidy case comes up before the Court of Appeais.

On the witness stand yesterday was Michael J. Lally, the Yonkers saloon-keeper, who has testified that he lent Thomas J. McCormick, former Sing Sing warden, the money to purchase the automobile in which Sullivan did his joy riding. Lally asserted again that the $2,000 paid for the car was his money, and was not furnished by Sullivan or any of his agents.

Miss Louise D. Burkhardt, secretary to Sullivan, was in the grand jury room more than an hour and a half.

Miss Louise D. Burkhardt, secretary to Sullivan, was in the grand jury room more than an hour and a half.
Thomas J. McCormick, the missing ex-warden, has not been found, but the District Attorney is hopeful. It is believed Tammany Hall will insist that McCormick put in an appearance to clear the organization of blame in the prison scandal.

Met Kill Box.

Ziegler Escapes Tax.

William Ziegler, jr., son of the late baking powder manufacturer, had his personal tax assessment of $500,000 for 1915 cancelled yesterday. He declared that while his taxable assets amounted that while his taxable assets amounted to more than $604,000 he had liabilities in excess of $1,500,000.

HATUMAII FIGURE NOT CHILD.

Richard C. Hartman, formerly president while his possible lap robe from his automobile within the blood in 40th st. Defectives will search the navable for a robe the size of a tarpaulin. Mrs. Mabel Cole $600dard, the real estate operation while his extended her of her fortune of almost $700,000.

Mrs. J. S. Mackenzie to have robbed her of her fortune of almost $700,000 and the late of the

MRS. A. G. WHEELER, JR

COURT BOMB SCARE AS DOOR SLAMS

by Sleuths-Campbell

JOBS NOW SEEKING MEN JOY RIDING AUTO City Employment Bureau Has Calls for Workers.

New Cases of Cattle Plague Dis-

the prison scandal.

Tetanus Did Not Kill Boy.

animal industry that several new cases of foot and mouth disease in cattle nad been discovered, three in Queens Coun-

NO HALT IN ECKERT FIGHT NO ALIENS, NO WORK, gated Catskill aqueduct work mind when it said in its present the provisions of the labor in the labor A. G. WHEELER, JR., Brothers Wrangle Over Estate SUES FOR DIVORCE

in Two Courts.

James Clendenin Eckert and Thomas
T. Eckert, son of General Thomas T.
Eckert, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, are still fighting over the estate of their father, valued at a little more than $1,000,000.
Following the application of Thomas T. Eckert in the Surrogates' Court for the appointment of a temporary administrator, the other son yesterday moved in the Supreme Court for the appointment of a receiver.
General Eckert left the bulk of his estate to Thomas T., and James Clendenin succeeded in breaking his father's will. Clubman-Broker Again at Odds with Prima Donna Wife.

SHE SAID "MY LOVE TOO GREAT FOR HIM"

That Was During Squabble Over Alimony After Separa-

The matrimonial affairs of Albert Gallatin Wheeler, jr., clubman and broker, and Mrs. Claudia Carlstedt Wheeler, prima donna of the comic opera stage, will be bared to the public again, for Wheeler yesterday filed Court. It was said Mrs. Wheeler was SAYS RICHES CAME few days ago. She is living at the When Claudia Carlstedt married

Albert Gallatin Wheeler in 1898 she ad won a wide reputation in comic opera. Wheeler, member of several clubs, including the Union League and the New York Athletic, was a member of J. B. Russell & Co., a banking and brokerage firm. He was reputed worth about $2,000,000, and his father, head of the corporation that built the Chicago tunnels, was rated at $10,000,000. The couple had been living at the Dakota Apartments, in 1910, when Mrs. Wheeler began a suit for separation, alleging that her husband had abandoned her. She also made allegations Hears from vi...

Repetition of that affection described by the police as "bombphobia" was apparent yesterday afternoon, when a door in the Criminal Courts Building, swelled by Thursday's rain, swung to with a crash that shattered the possible to use them in patrolling in the outlying districts, but, as it was afteresent, more men were needed. He was working on a plan, he said, to get civilians to do work now done by policemen wherever it was possible. The boiler squad ought to be taken out of the jurisdiction of the department had money for motorgoles, he asside that the city should have on file finger prints of every person living in the city.

He expressed the belief that the city sysbould have on file finger prints of every works on living in the city.

Line of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the country of the jurisdiction of the department when the was showered with broken glass as he was about to wish a crash that should have on file finger prints of every person living in the city.

Line of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city.

Line of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city.

Line of the jurisdiction of the department was apparent was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially in the city of the jurisdiction of the department was esperially of the furniture from their apartment was espe alleging that her husband had aban-doned her. She also made allegations of extreme cruelty, including the statement that Wheeler had removed still labors in Long Branch, while Lynch of the State Labor Department its and made him a member of took Exchange. Wheeler added to not that he had abandoned fe, but said he had good ground is action. The horizontal fer's application for reduction of er's application for reduction of ary was pending. Mrs. Wheeler asserted her great affection for issand. Wheeler the fer wedding ring was formerly worn.

Mrs. Nolan charged that since October 1, 1910, her husband had not contributed to her support. "I don't want him to support me, either," she added, "because I do not need it, and I'm glad he left me. I would never consent to go back to him."

The husband declared in his defence that his family took advantage of his absence one day to pack up and depart without a word to show their destina-

"My whole life was his," she said,
"and was absorbed by him. My thoughts never turned away from him.
I idolized him. After we had been married a number of years, another woman entered into his life and mine.
I was the last to find out, for my love was too great to believe that he could do such a thing My love was too great for him"

in foreclosure proceedings against the Considines, who named it for their

Short Bosoms
of Scotch Madras
and French Percale.
Cuffs Attached or Separate. Gloves

Gray Mocha's $1.15, Worth $1.7: The Samples of a Famous Maker

HIPPODROME WINTER GARDEN Broadway and South, Evgs. S. MA IE TEMPEST moments Mary Goes First. ATE LEW FIELDS MANHATTAN OPERA HOUSE, MID & SID AN Evenings & Mars. To-day, West, Thing's, 2. LIFE

LITTLE THEATRE A PAIR OF SILK STOCKINGS BOOTH THEATRE, 45th, W. of

EXPERIENCE MOST WONDERFUL PLAY IN NEW YORK. PLAY IN See Good Seats in 1st Balc., 50

WHITESIDE IN MR. WU CASINO, Ers. 8 15, Mats. To-day, Wed., They's, THE LAW OF LAND OF LAND. Phone Broant 46. STANDARD B'way & 90 St. Eves. Pop. Pr. CORT 46 St. E. of B'way. Photos Bryant 46.

THE YELLOW TICKET

STANDARD Mattine To-day, 250, 560, 750.

THE YELLOW TICKET

Neat Week—The THINGS THAT COUNT.

PHILHARMONIC : SYMPHONY CONCERTS JOSEF STRANSKY, CONDUCTOR.

All Wagner

Soloist, JULIA CULP

FIRST VIOLIN RECITAL. BROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC ARRIGO SERATO

Seats 50 cts. to $2. Mgt. A. Friedberg. Rnabs Plane. Punch & Judy THEA 49th, E. of B COLUMBIA A ATTH. Burlesque To-day

WALTER DAMROSCH, CONDUCTOR

PA QUALE AMATO FELICE LYNE,

PILATE'S DAUGHTER THE FAMOUS MIRACLE PLAY
Prices Evenius, 25c, to $1.50. Mathies Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, 15c, to $1. Frank E. Conover, president of the Mason Builders' Association said yesterday he could not see how nearly enough men could be found for large part of the subway work if the section of the law prohibiting alien.

selves to a use by the unscrupulor the purpose of extorting tribute contractors engaged on such

Frank E. Conover, president of the

"For instance," he said, "the Italias stone masons have the monopoly of foundation work because they are immune from the effects of saver gas. For the same reason they have practically a monopoly of excavation work." DOCK CO. HEARING Crane Calls Labor Law Aid to

GROUT DECLARES

Contractors Assert That

Enough American Labor

Cannot Be Got.

Blackmailer and Tells of Efforts for Repeal.

Dock Contractor Company, which it is refused to give it his approval. Neither did it receive indorsement from the city officials, the Board of Estimate, the

"For some unexplained reason th

P. S. C. POSTPONES

Mr. Grout called attention to the fact that if the law was enforced it would tie up not only the subways here, but also the Catskill aqueduct and the state denced by our rapid increase in the sale of Youths' Suits. We cut special models for

Court of Chancery, Jersey City, year terday.

Mrs. Katherine Lindley Nolan, who inherited an estate valued at $200,000, asked for a divorce from William Nolanker and the second of the labor law in its entirety. these men of 32 to 35 inch chest measure. Smart, youthful models.

fabrics.

Youths' suits, $16 to $32

made from our handsomest

Our young men's models are also in a class by themselves, entirely distinct from youths' suits and from older men's styles. Sizes to fit every man-styles to fit every tasteprices to fit every pocketbook. Everything men and boys

ROGERS PEET COMPANY

"Since the Ludington case no contrac-tor with a large contract has felt like being a testee for obvious reasons, and officials have not been anxious to force the issue with heavy damages certain against the city if the law were Warren St. 13th St

NEW AMSTERDAM

GILLETTE BATES DORO PAPA'S DARLING ELSIE FERGUSON GAIETY OUTCAST MATINE

THE GIRL FROM UTAH GEO. COHAN'S THEAT

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL "PYGMALION" HUDSON PHYLLIS NEILSON-TERRY
PHYLLIS NEILSON-TERRY

Salited by an EXTRAORIDINARY COMPANY

analoted by the Extraoridine First Plan.

SHAKESPEARE'S TWELFTH NIGHT. ELTINGE 43d St., West of B'war, Evs. 8 co. Mats. Torday, Wed. & Thanksz'z. NNOCENT - REDERICK HARRIS 42d St., West of B'way, Eves, 8 70, NAZIMOVA Gratos, "That Sort."

PARK Circle Begg WED., NOV. 25 THE GARDEN OF PARADISE WALLACK'S Nov. 23 MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL IN PYGMALION

RUTH CHATTERTON DADDY LONG-LEGS

BLLASCO" LEO DITRICHSTEIN-PHANTOM RIVAL

REPUBLIC West 41d St. Nos. 4.2

GLOBE Bennelmay, at 48 St. Even at 45 Mary Today, Wed & Thanks, 1981

LAST Tercentenary

DAY Exposition

GRAND CENTRAL PALACE

ADMISSION 50c. 2 to 11 P. M.

Children FREE with Paid Adults

MONTGOMERY & STONE CHIN PRANCES STARR in "THE SECRET." METROPOLITAN ME CANDLER WEST 42 ST. Eves. 8 20. Mats.

ASTOR HEWAY & 45 ST. Evos. MIRACLE MAN" LUNGACRE THEATRE, W. 48 St. Flys Mat. Next Wed. WHAT IT MEANS TO A WOMAN

A NEW PLAY IN FOUR ACTS. EXTRA MATINEE THANKSGIVING DAY. 71ST REGIMENT ARMORY NEW YORK SYMPHONY

OSSIP GABRILOWITSCH,

THE EVE ING MAIL

CENTURY Central Park West, Abt S. Nighta at S. Mats. at THIS AFTERNOON 2:30 CARNEGIE HALL

N. Y. SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Today Mat. "Aida" To-night, Farewell Fer formatione. "Fagilact" & Acts from "Licha" Towatore." With All-Farorite Casts.

Scholdst. ZIMBALIST CENTURY CUMMENCING WED. EVE., NOV. 25

NEW YORK THE TRAFFIC HARRY LAUDER VITAGRAPH DALY'S TOPENING NEXT MONTH

D IRVING PL. THEATRE

THE MARRIAGE OF COLUMBINE Strand STAND TYRONE PONT COMEDY OF VITAL HUMAN INTEREST.